

MORNING APPEAL.

SATURDAY.....MARCH 29, 1879

LETTER FROM BLUCHER.

BATTLE MOUNTAIN, March 27.
EDITOR APPEAL: The fire fiend has again paid us a visit, and left an entire block of our town in ruins. Last evening about 8 o'clock, and just as the tired citizens had got comfortably settled down to "pedro" and "freeze-out," the cry of "fire" stopped the games as suddenly as will the voice of that striding angel stop the wheels of time, when shall go forth the stentorian fiat, "time shall be no more." The cards dropped from the hands, the billiard cues fell upon the table, and the marker as he called, "Number two play with—," "fire" yelled the bartender, as he dropped his waiter, "fire," yelled the crowd out and in doors, and a rush and a yell was the result. Just back of Joe Ducang's saloon, a nymphe du pays, from the classic region known as "Cornucopia," had spread her tent, and in her quarters the trouble began, and from thence spread till a whole block was laid in ruins, and Battle Mountain mourns once more in ashes. The buildings consumed are Ducang's corner and the Gem Restaurant, Mayo's saloon and an unoccupied house adjoining, recently the "Delmonico;" John Rae's blacksmith and wagon shop, and the corral adjoining, with some buildings in the rear of all. The office of the Battle Mountain Messenger stands just east of the corral, but the wind was drawing in a southeasterly direction, and it was in no danger, a wide space intervening. I cannot estimate the losses, but it cannot be very heavy, as most of the furniture and stock of the tenants were saved, and the buildings were all light. It is a matter of surprise that a town, so recently burned out, should be without any fire organization, or any means of staying a conflagration, yet Battle Mountain has neither a hook nor a ladder, nor a foot of hose, nor a tank, although she has plenty of stalwart men and water in any quantity. If the fire had occurred two or three hours earlier it would have swept everything around, as a fierce zephyr was raging all afternoon. John Rae, whose shop was burned, deserves the sympathy of every one. He was uninsured and loses heavily, and is one of the most industrious men in Battle Mountain. Yours, BLUCHER.

LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEVADA.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.]

CHAPTER XXXI.

An Act to prevent persons from passing through enclosures and leaving them open by tearing down fences or otherwise, and domestic animals from being shot by persons while hunting on enclosed premises, and providing for the payment for such injuries so done.

[Approved February 19, 1879.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person who shall open any gate, bars or fence, for the purpose of passing through, and shall wilfully or negligently leave the same open, without permission of the owner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Every person who wilfully tears down, or otherwise destroys any fence on any enclosed land of another, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Every person who upon departing from camp, wilfully or negligently leaves the fire or fires burning or unextinguished, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 4. Every person found guilty of any of the misdemeanors herein mentioned, shall be found guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail until such fine is satisfied, not exceeding one day for each two dollars thereof.

SEC. 5. Nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed as to prevent the party suffering damage from obtaining a judgment against the party or parties so injuring or damaging, in any court of competent jurisdiction, as in all civil cases under the Practice Act of the State of Nevada.

CHAPTER XXXII.

An Act entitled an Act to make it unlawful for the owner or owners of swine, goat or goats, to allow them to run at large during a certain period of each year, from and after the approval of this Act.

[Approved, February 19, 1879.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful from and after the passage of this Act, for any person or persons, who are the owner or owners, or who may have charge of any swine, goat or goats within this State, to allow them to run at large, and be free commoners, from and after the first day of March to the tenth day of November of each and every year. But the intervening period, between the tenth day of November to the first day of March of each year, such swine, goat or goats, may be free commoners.

SEC. 2. Any swine, goat or goats, belonging to any person or persons, that shall break into any yard, flower or vegetable garden, or any enclosure whatever, or shall root up or destroy any pasture, field or growing grass for hay purposes, or any kind of growing crop whatever, whether the same be enclosed or not during the period that such swine, goat or goats, are prohibited to run at large and be free commoners by Section One of this Act, such owner or owners shall be subject to such damages as shall be equal to twice the value of the property broken into, eaten up or destroyed.

SEC. 3. All actions for damages, arising under the provisions of this Act, shall be tried and determined in the court having jurisdiction thereof, as in other cases made and provided.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

An Act to provide for the payment of certain indebtedness, accrued and to accrue of White Pine County.

[Approved February 20, 1879.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Board of Commissioners of White Pine County are hereby authorized and directed, from and after the passage of this Act, to create in the County Treasury of said county, a fund to be known as the Redemption Fund of said county, as soon after the passage of this Act as may be practicable, said Board shall cause to be transferred into said Redemption Fund, twenty per cent. of all resources in the General Fund of said county, at the time of the taking effect of this Act, and the County Treasurer of said county is hereby expressly prohibited from paying out any portion of said twenty per cent. of said revenues, from said Treasury, until the order of transference to be made by said Board, as hereinafter provided for, is duly certified to such Treasurer, and said Board shall cause twenty per cent. of all county revenues, paid into the treasury of said county, after the passage of this Act to be placed in said Redemption Fund, as soon as paid into said Treasury the money placed in the Redemption Fund created by this Act shall be disbursed as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Whenever at any time, there shall be in said Redemption Fund, the sum of five hundred dollars, or more, it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer of said county to give ten days' notice by posting at the Court-house door of said county, that sealed proposals directed to him, will be received for the surrender of county certificates of indebtedness on the General Fund of said county, pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and that said proposals will be received by him until the next regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of said county thereafter.

SEC. 3. On the first day of such regular meeting of said Board of County Commissioners, they, together with the County Auditor and Treasurer, shall attend at the office of the latter, and then and there open all sealed proposals then received, and accept the lowest bid or bids, for the surrender of county certificates of indebtedness as specified in the preceding section, provided that no bid for more than par value shall be accepted by them, nor any bid unless accompanied by certificate or certificates proposed to be surrendered, and provided further, that said Board shall, if it shall deem it for the best interests of the county, reject all bids, and order the Treasurer to re-advertise. Said Board shall, on opening and accepting bids, apply all funds then in said Redemption Fund, if there be accepted bids sufficient to cover the amount.

SEC. 4. When any bid or bids are accepted, the County Auditor, and County Treasurer shall each take a description of the certificate or certificates to be redeemed, specifying the amount to be paid for each certificate surrendered, the date, number and amount thereof, and make a record thereof in their respective offices, and thereupon the Board of County Commissioners shall, by order entered in their minutes, direct the County Treasurer to purchase the certificate or certificates of indebtedness designated in the accepted bid or bids, and pay therefor out of said Redemption Fund, and all certificates, so redeemed, shall be cancelled by the County Treasurer, who shall write across the face thereof, in red ink, "Purchased and redeemed," adding thereto the time when, and the amount paid therefor, and signing the same officially. The order of the Board of Commissioners aforesaid, together with the record made by the County Auditor as herein required, shall be sufficient vouchers for the County Treasurer in the settlement of his accounts. The bids specified in this Act being equal, preference shall be given to priority of date of allowance, and to the smallest amount.

That shall be deemed the lowest bid which offers the largest amount of certificates for the least sum of money. The bids and amounts of certificates being equal, each shall be accepted and paid pro rata as nearly as possible. The County Treasurer shall return all unaccepted bids to the owners on demand. The County Treasurer shall keep a separate account, under the head of "Redemption Fund," of all moneys received therein, of all moneys paid out thereof, and when and to whom paid. He shall also, on the register of county certificates of indebtedness kept by him, write opposite each certificate redeemed under the provisions of this Act, the word "purchased," when, and the amount paid therefor.

SEC. 5. All officers of said county, who shall render any services, official or otherwise under the provisions of this Act, shall do so free of charge or fee.

SEC. 6. An Act entitled An Act to provide for the payment of certain indebtedness, accrued and to accrue, of White Pine County, approved January twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, and all other Acts and parts of Acts heretofore passed, so far only as in conflict with this Act, are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

An Act to provide for the erection of guide boards on public roads and highways.

[Approved February 21, 1879.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is hereby made the duty of the Board of County Commissioners in each county of this State, within ninety days after the passage of this Act, to cause to be put up, and to be thereafter kept up, at each crossing or forks of any public road or highway in such county, and at each place where a public road or highway crosses or diverges from any private or toll-road, a guide board, having thereon an index or pointer, and the words, "To (naming the place or first point of any importance on such road, and the number of miles, as near as may be, thereto) miles." Such number of guide boards shall be put up and so placed, at all such points, as to enable travelers to readily understand therefrom the road they may wish to travel, in order to arrive at the desired destination.

SEC. 2. The owner or owners of any toll-road in this State, having one or more lateral branches, are hereby required, at their own expense, to comply with the provisions of Section One of this Act.

SEC. 3. Any wilful neglect to carry out the provisions of this Act, on the part of any such owner or owners of toll-road or roads, shall upon conviction thereof subject the defendant to a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Washington, March 28.—Secretary Sherman says it is no discredit to the silver dollar that it not popular. The vaults of the Sub-Treasury in New York are filled with the gold that anybody can have in exchange for greenbacks by the simple asking, yet few ask. There is virtually no demand for silver or gold. We have some six millions of subsidiary silver coin in the Treasury which we will pay out when called for, yet there is no demand, or next to none, for that. The fact is, the people have become educated in a school of paper money and they want nothing else, if they can get paper that is at all times equal with coin.

Chicago, March 28.—A Washington correspondent of the Inter-Ocean says: The rival medical schools have entered into a fight over the composition of the National Board of Health. The President nominated five allopathic physicians and two homeopathic, and in the Senate the former were confirmed, but the latter were objected to, and no action was taken.

New York, March 28.—Bret Harte has been elected a member of the Rabelais Club of London, formed to promote earnestness, erudition and manly strength in literature.
